4. The regulations OCR enforces prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age. The regulations also ban retaliation against persons who assert the right to be free from discrimination. Please note the following:

- Discrimination based on race, color, and national origin includes failure to provide meaningful access to English learners and limited English proficient parents and guardians, as well as discrimination based on shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics or based on citizenship in a country with a dominant religion.

- Discrimination based on sex includes discrimination based on sex stereotypes, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation, and gender identity, as well as rules about parental, family, or marital status that treat people differently based on sex.
- Discrimination based on disability includes discrimination against individuals who have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity, as well as individuals who have a record of or are regarded as having a disability.
- Discrimination based on age does not limit protection against discrimination to a certain age group (e.g., people over 40); however, there are a variety of exceptions to the relevant Federal law that may permit age to be taken into account.
- Retaliation refers to actions taken for the purpose of interfering with any rights under the laws enforced by OCR, or because you made a complaint, testified, or participated in any manner in an OCR proceeding.

Please indicate the basis of your complaint:

Discrimination based on sex (specify)

University of Louisiana at Monroe is discriminating on the basis of sex by providing women with unequal athletic participation opportunities, unequal athletic scholarship dollars, and unequal treatment and benefits, including athletic recruitment funding.

Discrimination based on disability (specify)

Discrimination based on age (specify)

Retaliation because you filed a complaint or otherwise asserted rights under laws enforced by OCR (specify)

Violation of the Boy Scouts of America Equal Access Act (specify)

5. Please describe each alleged discriminatory act. For each action, please include the date(s) the discriminatory act occurred, the name(s) of each person(s) involved and, why you believe the discrimination was because of race, disability, age, sex, etc. Also please provide the names of any person(s) who was present and witnessed the act(s) of discrimination.

Women at the University of Louisiana at Monroe are 64.08% of the student body, but they are provided just 39.50% of the student-athlete opportunities. To provide athletic opportunities that are substantially proportionate to men's and women's enrolment, or Prong 1, or the "Proportionality Test," the University of Louisiana at Monroe must add 326 additional athletic opportunities for women.

University of Louisiana at Monroe sponsors:

- 5 men's varsity sports (Baseball, Basketball, Football, Golf and Track & Field) providing this educational opportunity to 203 men, in the single count.
- 8 women's varsity sports (Basketball, Beach Volleyball, Golf, Soccer, Softball, Tennis, Track & Field and Volleyball), providing this educational opportunity to 116 women, in the single count.

In Champion Women's attached letter, we provide detailed facts that University of Louisiana at Monroe cannot meet Prong 2 or Prong 3 either.

Champion Women's materials includes a chart with 19 years of EADA data showing that the school does not have “a continuing practice of program expansion which is demonstrably responsive to the developing interests and abilities of the members of that sex”, the requirement for Prong 2.

Champion Women demonstrates that University of Louisiana at Monroe cannot meet Prong 3 of meeting women's interest and athletic ability with the following facts, better detailed in our letter, from:

- The athletic conference. University of Louisiana at Monroe is a Division I NCAA school, a member of the Sun Belt Conference, with members from South Carolina, North Carolina, Arkansas, Georgia, Virginia, Louisiana, West Virginia, Alabama, Virginia and Texas. It is difficult to imagine a collegiate sport that would not be competing within this enormous geographic region.
- Conference women's championship sports, that the school does not offer. The Sun Belt Conference sponsors women's Swimming & Diving as a Championship sport, a sport Louisiana Monroe does not offer for women.
- Conference members women's team sponsorship, as compared with the school's women's sports. The Sun Belt Conference members sponsor women's Bowling, Field Hockey, Lacrosse, Rifle, Rowing, Sailing, and Swimming and Diving. Louisiana Monroe does not offer these seven women's sports.
- Girl's sport sponsored by their state high school athletic association, compared with the school's women's sport sponsorship. Louisiana sponsors girls' Swimming & Diving, Weightlifting, and Wrestling. The University of Louisiana Monroe does not sponsor these three sports.
- High school-age girls in the competitive geographic region compete in sports that are not associated with schools: club sports, travel teams, the AAU, and the Olympic and Paralympic sports. These include Basketball, Golf, Tennis, Equestrian, Badminton, Table Tennis, Team Handball, Sailing, Field Hockey, Fencing, Swimming & Diving, Skateboarding, Water Polo, Archery, Field Hockey, Rifle, Triathlon, Ice Hockey, Sport Climbing, Artistic Swimming, Skiing, Snowboarding, Gymnastics, Rowing, Wrestling, Rugby, and combat sports, like Judo, Jujitsu, Karate, and Taekwondo.
- Women at the University of Louisiana at Monroe participate in several club sports of tennis, softball, badminton, basketball, dodgeball, wiffleball, and cornhole.

- Champion Women provided the NCAA “emerging sport” list of sports, with sports that the University of Louisiana at Monroe does not offer.
- Champion Women provided links to sport governing bodies, which makes it easy to see where women’s teams and potential competitors are located.

Champion Women also checked the school’s website and found University of Louisiana at Monroe does not provide avenues to add more women’s sports, it does not assess the interests and athletic abilities of its students to determine which new sports to add, and its Title IX page is devoted to sexual harassment and violence, ignoring sex discrimination in the athletic department.

The failure to provide women with equal opportunities to play impacts the availability of athletic scholarship dollars for women. These are important sources of funding for educational attainment that women are being denied because of their sex. If Louisiana Monroe provided its male and female students with the same opportunities to participate, Louisiana Monroe would need to add $3,695,295 additional athletic scholarship dollars, to balance out the amount Louisiana Monroe provides to its male students. If, for some reason, the OCR determines that Louisiana Monroe is, in fact, not discriminating against women in providing equal opportunities in sport, the OCR will use the student-athlete ratio instead of the student-body ratio, no more scholarship dollars would be required.

University of Louisiana at Monroe needs to give women’s teams an additional $236,184 in recruiting funds, based on enrollment. If, for some reason, the OCR determined that the University of Louisiana at Monroe is, in fact, not discriminating against women in providing opportunities in sport, the OCR will use the student-athlete ratio instead of the student-body ratio, the University of Louisiana at Monroe would still need to provide its women’s sports teams – and women’s coaches – with $11,162 more recruiting dollars in order to be consistent with the school’s investment in men’s sports.

To address these disparities, Champion Women requests that the Office for Civil Rights (“OCR”) investigate the University of Louisiana at Monroe to determine whether it is discriminating against women in its athletic department. Additional Title IX violations are expected to be found, including equipment and supplies; game and practice times; travel and per diem allowances; coaching and academic tutoring; assignment and compensation of coaches and tutors; locker rooms, practice, and competitive facilities; medical and training facilities and services; housing and dining facilities and services; and publicity. 34 C.F.R. §106.41(a), 1979 Policy Interpretation. When violations are found, secure assurances of compliance with Title IX that include full remedies.

In the next two graphs below, notice how women are entitled to much less in athletic scholarship aid and recruiting budgets than the school provides men, if the OCR allows a school to count women multiple times, but not require the same for men, or the OCR does not require Prong 1 or Proportionality. Louisiana at Monroe would need to add $3,695,295 additional athletic scholarship dollars for women, to balance out the amount it provides to its male students. But if the student-athlete ratio is used, then the University of Louisiana at Monroe would not need to provide women additional athletic scholarship aid.

13. Option to Participate in OCR’s Early Mediation Process

OCR provides an early mediation process as an opportunity for you and the recipient institution to voluntarily resolve your complaint soon after you file it with OCR.

Mediation is a form of complaint resolution that OCR offers as an alternative to its investigative process. Mediation is an informal process in which a staff member from OCR who is trained in mediation assists the parties to reach a negotiated resolution of the complaint. The mediator does not decide who is right or wrong and does not have the authority to impose a settlement on the parties. Instead, the mediator helps the parties to find a mutually acceptable resolution to your complaint. Mediation is a strictly voluntary process. If either party does not want to participate in mediation, OCR will address the complaint through its regular processes.

If you are interested in participating in the early mediation process, you must check the box below. If you indicate your interest in early mediation by checking the box below and OCR determines that your complaint is appropriate for this process, OCR will contact you and the recipient institution and offer this resolution option. If the recipient agrees to participate in early mediation, OCR will work with you and the recipient to achieve a mutually agreeable resolution of your complaint. If the recipient does not wish to participate in early mediation, OCR will proceed with its regular processing of your complaint. If you do not indicate your interest in early mediation by checking the box below, early mediation will not be offered to you and OCR will proceed with its regular processing of your complaint.

14. What would you like the institution to do as a result of your complaint
— what remedy are you seeking?

- Investigate the University of Louisiana at Monroe to determine whether it is discriminating against women; whether it is providing female students with equal participation opportunities in varsity athletics, equal and proportionate athletic scholarship dollars, and equal treatment and benefits, including equal recruiting budgets.
- Take all necessary steps to remedy all unlawful conduct identified by Title IX and its implementing regulations.
- To add more athletic opportunities for women, and to accord women athletes and these additional teams the full range of benefits accorded to men's varsity teams and athletes, such as equipment and supplies; game and practice times; travel and per diem allowances; coaching and academic tutoring; assignment and compensation of coaches and tutors; locker rooms, practice, and competitive facilities; medical and training facilities and services; housing and dining facilities and services; and publicity. 34 C.F.R. §106.41(a), 1979 Policy Interpretation. Increase scholarship and recruiting budgets and opportunities, to be equal to the men's, and adopt and implement a plan to achieve full compliance with Title IX throughout the entire athletic department.
